Texas Ambulatory
Surgery Center Society

The United Voice of the Texas ASC Industry!

Greetings

I am pleased to share with you details regarding the 2009 Texas Ambulatory Surgery Center Society's 2009 Annual Conference. As the united voice of the Texas ASC industry, TASCs has developed an incredible agenda to serve as a low-cost way for countless physicians, administrators, and other key leaders from the 400 Texas ASCs to learn more about the industry. In addition, ASCs from surrounding states will be invited to attend the industry's premier networking event in both Texas and the region.

As one of the only state trade associations with a vendor seat on the board of directors, TASCs recognizes that your company's products and services play a critical role in enhancing patient services. Over the past 10 months, TASCs has greatly enhanced the ASC-vendor relationship in Texas by utilizing vendors' expertise in both membership communications regarding the industry's latest innovations and public policy initiatives to deliver better patient care.

Due to a limited number of exhibitor spaces available, priority will be given to TASCs Vendor Members. TASCs took vendor feedback from past annual conferences and will incorporate those comments into this year's exhibit hall. To drive more traffic into the exhibit area, exhibitors will be encouraged to offer prizes to attendees. In addition, some of those drawings will include membership discounts for 2010. More exhibit time has been built into the schedule as well.

Last July, TASCs developed a new strategy and hired a new executive director to help the Texas ASC industry meet a growing number of public policy, education, and communications needs and turn TASCs into one of the nation's premier state medical trade associations. That new strategy has resulted in a strong increase in membership involvement and a communications component that makes TASCs one of the strongest ASC-related voices in the nation. This year's annual conference will serve as an excellent opportunity to build on that success and bring everyone together under one roof.

Thank you again for your interest in participating. ASCs are critical to the success of healthcare delivery in Texas. Your participation will help ensure that ASCs will continue having the resources necessary to provide the safest and highest quality healthcare available to Texas patients.

Sincerely,

William Crowder, MD
President, Board of Directors
